

West Woodstock Conn.

June 12th 1888

To the Superintendent of the U.S. Mint.

Dear Sir:

Mrs Jane S.

(Squires) White - wife of David
M. White of West Woodstock Conn and sister of Ralph J. Squires formerly of Ashford, Windham County, Conn. - latterly (since 1830-40) of the U.S. Army and sometimes in other employment of the U.S. Govt.

desires to ask of the proper officer, whether there is a deposit of bullion, or coined bullion, to the credit of the above named Ralph J. Squires, or his heirs and assigns - as she learns through a friend that an advertisement of the U. S. Mint to this effect appeared in one of the Boston or other city papers, some weeks or months ago. As Ralph J. Squires is believed to be dead, and died unmarried and his parents are dead - Mrs. White and her brothers would be his heirs, and ask this information ~~that~~ they may file the proper vouchers to make good their claim.

If this letter be directed to the wrong official, she respectfully requests that this letter may be referred to the proper office - and if the above query is answered in the affirmative, she also respectfully asks that proper blanks and instructions may be sent to the undersigned, or to her, to enable her and the other heirs to make the necessary proofs.

Yours truly

b. C. Williams
Atty. for Mrs. Jane E. White.
M. H.

There is no deposit on our books in the name of Ralph J. Squires and there is no money here for any one of that name. The advertiser referred to was that of the old man A. Squires that left his money here so long & presume

Very Respy
W. H.

1285

West Woodstock, Conn.
June 12, 1889

G. C. Williams

Asks whether there is a deposit of Bullion to the credit of Ralph J. Squires.

[Abstract:] Asks whether there is a deposit of Bullion to the credit of Ralph J. Squires.

West Woodstock, Conn.

June 12, 1889

To the Superintendents of the U.S. Mint

Dear Sir:

Mrs. Jane S. (Squires) White – wife of David M. White of West Woodstock, Conn., and sister of Ralph J. Squires formerly of Ashford, Windham County, Conn. – latterly (since 1830-40) of the U.S. Army and sometimes in other employment of the U.S. Govt. desires to ask of the proper officer, whether there is a deposit of bullion, or coined bullion, to the credit of the above named Ralph J. Squires, or his heirs and assigns to as she learns through a friend that an advertisement of the U.S. Mint to this effect appeared in one of the Boston or other city papers, some weeks or months ago. As Ralph J. Squires is believed to be dead and died unmarried and his parents are dead – Mrs. White and her brothers would be his heir, and ask this information that they may file the proper vouchers to make good their claim. If this letter be directed to the wrong official, she respectfully requests that this letter may be referred to the proper office – and if the above query is answered in the affirmative, she also respectfully asks that proper blanks and instructions may be sent to the undersigned, or to her, to enable her and the other heirs to make the necessary proofs.

Yours respy.
G.C. Williams
Atty. for Mrs. Jane E. White

[Noted at bottom:]

Mr. W.

There is no deposit on our books in the name of Ralph J. Squires and there is no money here for any one of that name. The advertisement referred to was that of the old man A. Squires that left his money here so long I presume.

Very Respt.
N.S. Steel